

In the petition, Bellsouth claims that there is sufficient competition from other forms of Broadband, the fact of the matter is that there are not. Most areas are underserved or are served by only one one type of service. The Commission will eliminate any competition in these areas by agreeing with the petitioner... I ask the FCC to deny the petitioners and continue it's oversight.